

Economic report

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

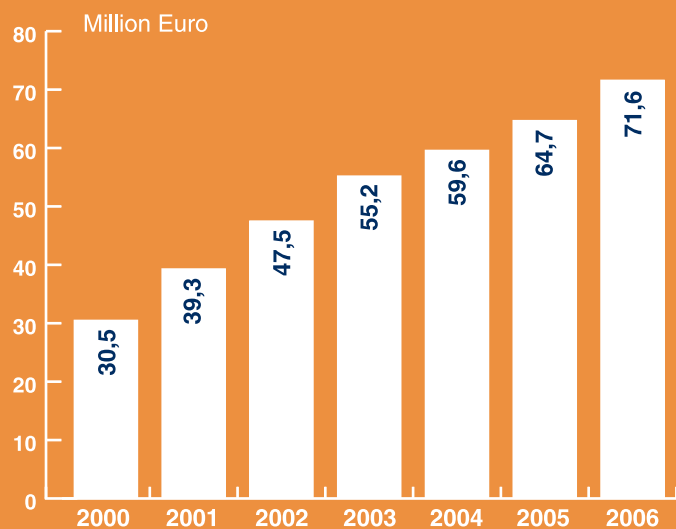

The University Campus Bio-Medico of Rome is legally recognised as a non-state university. Teaching activity is financed by student fees, donations and public funding. The services of the University Hospital are covered by the Public Health System. The creation of the university campus in Trigoria and the Centre in Via Longoni has been financed through donations, investments by private and institutional shareholders, and through both Italian and European public funds.

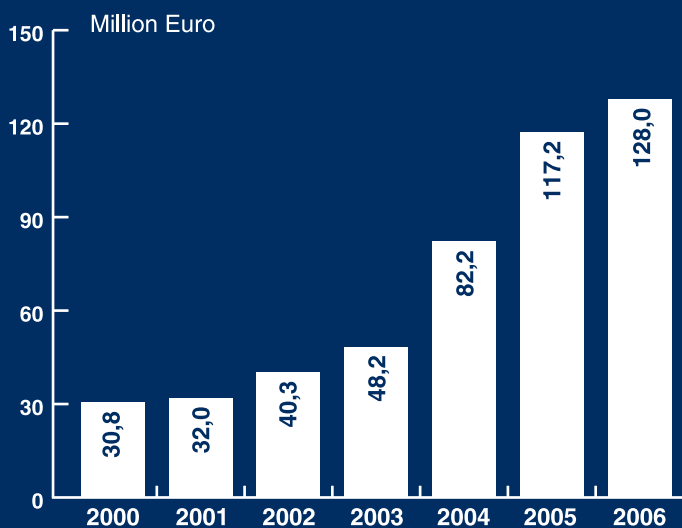

STAFF

TOTAL REVENUE

NET ASSETS

HOSPITAL REVENUE

